Land Use Survey Results

By Annie Mendoza

The Greenacres Woodward Civic Association (GWCA) initiated this survey to solicit community input on potential redevelopment options for the building formerly known as "Stanley's" and the adjacent vacant lot at the southwest corner of 8 Mile and Woodward, while considering the constraints of existing zoning regulations. The survey aimed to collect a minimum of 100 responses, representing approximately 10% of Greenacre households, to ensure meaningful and representative community engagement.

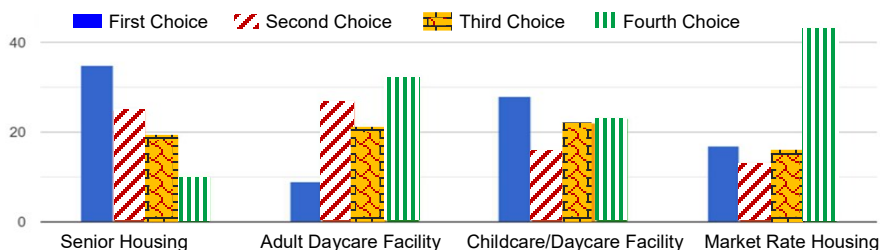

Completed surveys were accepted from June 20 to August 8, 2025. We received a total of 89 community responses—17 by mail, 13 by phone, and 59 through our online form. Based on feedback, the top community priorities are:

1st place: Senior Housing. Most people chose this as their first choice. Few people ranked it last.

2nd place: Childcare/Daycare Facility. Popular across all rankings; consistently chosen as a top or middle option.

3rd place: Adult Daycare Facility. Not many picked it as their top choice and often selected it as 2nd or 4th choice.

4th place: Market Rate Housing. Least popular. Most ranked it as their last choice.

Thank you again to all who participated. If you are interested in joining the Committee, please email 8milewoodwardcommittee@gmail.com

Friends of Pasteur Request Tutors

The District has now started after-school tutoring. We have more students seeking assistance than the current group of teachers and volunteer tutors can support. If you are one of the current tutors, THANK YOU SO MUCH! Some of you have said it's the BEST PART OF YOUR WEEK! If you are not, please consider tutoring—either during the school day or after school.

Don't doubt your ability; we provide comprehensive instructions for both reading and math tutoring. The tutoring sessions are held in our recently revitalized library, now a warm and welcoming space where you can make a meaningful impact.

Tutoring is one of many volunteer opportunities at Pasteur. Your time is the most precious gift you can give and it makes a real impact in the lives of Pasteur students! We would love to have you join us and help with some of our exciting, fun and vital initiatives and events. Volunteer opportunities vary from weekly to annually. We understand that folks give what they can and never apply pressure to our volunteers.

For more information or to volunteer please visit our website: www.friendsofpasteur.org

Plastics are Poison!

Thank you, Karen Hammer, for compiling this information

Plastic pollution- through production, use and disposal, has toxic building blocks, and has become ubiquitous in today's world. Of the 500M tons/year produced, 400M tons become "waste." The human consequences? Chemicals and plastic particles and products disrupt endocrine (hormonal) functions, lead to cancers, impair organ function, and disrupt development in children, at every stage of their life. It pollutes everything it touches—through air, water, soil, and our food.¹ Those with the least access to resources to deal with the impacts—lower-income populations, indigenous peoples, people of color, rural and coastal communities, women and children, and communities of the Global South—bear the most cost, expanding the issue to human rights and social justice.

FACTS:

1. The fossil fuel industry has increased plastic production to make up for the worldwide drop in fossil fuel use, due to alternative energy use.

Global plastics production is projected to increase its already significant growth by 70%, potentially tripling by 2060 -- driven by rising populations, increased consumption, and reliance on fossil fuels for production.²

2. Oil and chemicals combine. Forever chemicals in our water are originally sourced through industrial facilities, such as petroleum stations and terminals, chemical manufacturers, plastics and resin manufacturing and more.³

The Zero Waste Detroit Coalition, which the GWCA is a member of, signed a CSO Manifesto (with over 125 organizations worldwide) called "Break Free From Plastic," published on July 22.⁴ The manifesto was added to a global plastics treaty in Geneva, Switzerland this August. The Treaty provides a strong international regulatory framework to protect human, biodiversity and climate health globally. It:

- mandates plastic production reduction, with an overall phase-out, restricting harmful chemicals.
- excludes polluting technologies such as incineration, chemical recycling, and waste-to-energy schemes
- prioritizes developing & scale-up of safe, toxic-free, and accessible reuse and refill systems, to shift away from a failed recycling-centric model.

DID YOU KNOW?

Only 5-8% of plastics are recycled

The U.S. opposed putting a cap on production – which prevented the countries from coming to a consensus. Discussions will continue, including at the UN Environment Assembly in Nairobi in December.

A majority of the countries- the European Union, numerous developing countries, and island nations in the Global South- strongly coalesced to address all aspects of plastics pollution. Since the few fossil-fuel producers, (with U.S. under both Biden & Trump) won't accept limits on production, the consensus-based vs. a democratic vote process might be challenged, ending the tyranny of the few over the many. This would be a major change in UN protocol.

Will Detroit Revisit the 2019 Green New Deal Resolution?

By Frank Hammer

The Green New Deal is one of the most important subjects for the mayoral election. Before going to the polls, voters should know how Mary Sheffield would implement the resolution she co-authored. They should also know Solomon Kinloch's position:

if he agrees with the resolution, and if/how he would implement it. Is either one going to replace Duggan on the US Climate Mayors council? If so, what agenda will either promote? <https://www.climatemayors.org/>

Public Comment made by Frank Hammer at the Detroit City Council meeting July 29, 2025

President Sheffield,

I believe next Tuesday you will win the city's support to be the next mayor of Detroit. When you do, I beseech you to revisit the resolution you pioneered back in 2019 in support of the Green New Deal.* It came on the heels of the first time [President] Trump took us out of the global climate treaty. And here's what you said:

"According to scientists, we now have less than 12 years—[today now just 6 years] – to reduce all carbon emissions by half, or we face even more catastrophic climate change. In response to this existential threat to human civilization itself, climate justice activists have demanded a Green New Deal. The Green New Deal is an urgent ten-year plan to mobilize every aspect of American society, for policy transformations on a scale of the Depression Era "New Deal."

"The time for action is now to boldly transform our economy and society to stop climate change from destroying us, by adopting systems using 100% renewable energy, guaranteed living wage jobs for everybody who wants one, and a just transition for both workers and communities."

"Because of the massive threats posed by global warming and related environmental challenges, the time for far-reaching radical action is now. Cities can and should play a major role in this process. Because the United States has been one of the leading emitters of greenhouse gas pollution, accounting for 20 percent of it, we must take a leading role in reducing such emissions through economic and social transformation."

* Co-authored by former Council Member Raquel Castaneda Lopez and passed unanimously. Green New Deal Resolution published in Riverwise Magazine Sept. 19, 2019
